The Cat and the Little Girl

By Kiana Weiland
A girl named Tiffany found a cat. She picked it up.
Tiffany took it home.
She played with the cat.
Tiffany made the cat a place to sleep before she went to bed. That night she dreamed about the cat.
When Tiffany got up in the morning, the cat was gone. She was sad very sad. Tiffany cried a long time.
Later in the day, when she was sitting on the porch, the cat jumped up on the porch beside her.
Tiffany was excited! She screamed. She said "YEAH!".
